

EC CAMBRIDGE

General Information

The city is an amazing fusion of historic and contemporary living, world-famous for the excellence of its university and for its magnificent architecture.

Cambridge is a small city, making it easy to travel around on foot, bus or bicycle. It has a relaxed but cosmopolitan feel and a large student population, making it an ideal place to study English.

A leisurely punt down the River Cam is a great way to explore the 31 colleges that make up the University of Cambridge, the oldest dating back to 1284. Discover some of the world's best architecture and hidden treasures.

The centre of Cambridge has the charm of a market town with numerous shops, colourful market stalls and quaint old pubs. The town is rich in culture and has a wonderful atmosphere. You will find lush green parks and trendy cafés along the riverside plus numerous sports venues, cinemas, dramatic theatre, bars, nightclubs, galleries and exhibitions. Cambridge is a fantastic base from which to explore the UK and London is less than an hour away by train.

EC Cambridge

EC Cambridge was established in 1983 and is the most centrally located language school in the city. It is situated right in the heart of town, less than 100 metres from the Market Square and the central city library, to which all EC students have free access. The famous King's College Chapel and the main bus station are both only 3 minutes' walk away. You will find the school in a charming period building dating back to 1820.
