“Breakfast Club is a good opportunity to learn English and new culture. When I read METRO for the first time, I was so surprised not to understand what the newspaper said. In the newspaper there are so many unfamiliar words and expressions they usually use. Then I started to consider reading METRO to be good practice for me. Above, I said, it's difficult for me to read it, and Breakfast Club definitely help me to do it. Because teachers explain outline of the news, what's more, this is the opportunity to speak English. That's why I go. I think it is waste of the time sleeping in. I recommend because I think Breakfast Club is helpful to improve your English. So, this is different from ordinary classes. You can feel real authentic English.”

Free Academic Activities

· Pronunciation Classes

Students meet once a week with EC London's pronunciation expert to work on improving vowel and consonant pronunciation. Students also practice accurate sentence and word stress and natural intonation.

· Coffee & Conversation

Practice speaking about a variety of topics with EC London's staff as well as with your peers, over a cup of coffee. Ideal setting to relax and practice your speaking!

· Basic Writing Skills

On a monthly basis, students can improve their writing skills. Together with a EC London's staff, students can work on their spelling, punctuation and grammar.

· Breakfast Club

First thing in the morning, before class, students and a teacher sit around and look at the language used in the newspaper. Students have the chance to ask questions and have a discussion about current affairs. It's a great way to develop fluency and learn new vocabulary and the perfect way to start the day!
